Stewardship Reflection for the week

It was Terry Pratchett who said that the shape of a religion depended on whether a revelation came to a shepherd or a goatherd – ‘for sheep are stupid, and have to be driven, but goats are intelligent, and can only be led.’

I’m not sure it’s purely intelligence; sheep tend to react as a flock, and goats are more individualists. What’s certain is that the Israelites tended to think of themselves as shepherds, even when they also kept goats; and perhaps because the goats gave more trouble, they tended to get a bad press. Both were kept for milk, meat, fleece and hides, and, productively speaking, there’s not a lot to choose between them. But God was always the shepherd, rather than the goatherd, of Israel – although on all the evidence of the Old Testament, his people had far more of the characteristics of goats than sheep! ‘Who? Us?’ is the response of the goats when asked why they had so signally failed to show the marks of the kingdom in their lives. ‘I don’t understand. We have been honest, hardworking goats all our lives. We’ve never been dependant on other people like those sheep over there, always looking for someone to get them out of another crisis. If anyone wanted anything, they only had to ask – no buts!’

‘Haven’t you forgotten the time when you and that lamb wandered off and got stuck on that cliff?’ replies the shepherd. ‘You couldn’t go forward, and the lamb was blocking the way back. If I hadn’t found you and rescued you, what life would you have?’

Which are we – thankful sheep, or proud, independent goats?

¶ The Gathering

¶ Please stand when the bell is rung to sing The Processional Hymn

O worship the King, all glorious above;
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
Our shield and defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendour, and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

O measureless Might, ineffable Love,
While angels delight to hymn thee above,
Thy humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall sing to thy praise.

Words: Robert Grant (1779 – 1838)

Tune Hanover: Melody by William Croft (1678 – 1727)

¶ Remain standing for The Invocation and Greeting

† In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you
and also with you.

¶ Please sit or kneel for The Prayers of Penitence

Jesus says, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.'
So let us turn away from sin and turn to Christ, confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

The kingdom is yours,
but we turn away from your just rule:

Lord, have mercy

The power is yours,
but we trust in our own power and strength:

Christ, have mercy

The glory is yours,
but we fall short of the glory of God:

Lord, have mercy.

Almighty God,
who in Jesus Christ has given us a kingdom that cannot be destroyed, forgive us our sins, open our eyes to God's truth, strengthen us to do God's will and give us the joy of his kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Final Hymn

Christ triumphant, ever reigning, Saviour, Master, King.
Lord of heaven, our lives sustaining,
Hear us as we sing:

Yours the glory and the crown,
The high renown, the eternal name.

Word incarnate, truth revealing,
Son of Man on earth!
Power and majesty concealing
By your humble birth:

Suffering Servant, scorned, ill-treated,
Victim crucified!
Death is through the cross defeated, .
Sinners justified:

Priestly King, enthroned for ever
High in heaven above!
Sin and death and hell shall never Stifle hymns of love:

So, our hearts and voices raising
Through the ages long,
Ceaselessly upon You gazing,
This shall be our song:

Words: Michael Saward (b.1932)
Tune Guiting Power: John Barnard (b.1948)

Lord of life, earth, sky and sea,
King of love on Calvary!'

King most holy, King of truth,
Guard the lowly, guide the youth;
Christ the King of glory bright,
Be to us eternal light.

Shepherd-king, o'er mountains steep
Homeward bring the wandering sheep;
Shelter in one royal fold
States and kingdoms, new and old.

Eucharistic King, what love
Draws thee daily from above,
Clad in signs of bread and wine :
Feed us, lead us, keep us thine!

Rule our hearts, our minds, our wills;

the only Son of God,

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,

through him all things were made.

and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

because we all share in one bread.

¶ Remain standing for The Invitation to Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

¶ Please sit or kneel for The Lamb of God

While the Altar Party receives the Sacrament, the choir leads the singing of the 'Agnus Dei' (Lamb of God). Please join in singing this.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: Have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: Have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: Grant us peace.

Distribution of the Sacrament

Anyone who has been baptised in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and wishes to receive the love of the Lord Jesus in their life, is welcome to come forward to receive communion at this service.

Please come forward when directed by a steward. Please note it does not matter which side you receive from: please alternate with the person in front of you. Having received please return to your seats by means of the side aisles, and cross aisle if necessary

Alternatively you may wish to come for a blessing: if this is your preference please keep your hands down and your head bowed to indicate this.

Great is the mystery of faith:

And so, Father, calling to mind his death on the cross, his perfect sacrifice made once for the sins of the whole world;
rejoicing in his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming in glory,
we celebrate this memorial of our redemption.

As we offer you this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, we bring before you this bread and this cup and we thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

Send the Holy Spirit on your people and gather into one in your kingdom all who share this one bread and one cup, so that we, in the company of the Blessed Virgin Mary,
the apostles, martyrs and all the saints,
may praise and glorify you for ever,

through Jesus Christ our Lord;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

¶ Remain standing for The Lord's Prayer

Jesus taught us to call God our Father, and so we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Please sit or kneel for The Intercessory Prayers

Let us with confidence present our prayers and supplications to the throne of grace.

To the bidding 'May your kingdom come.'

Please respond by saying

'Lord, hear our prayer.'

At the end of the Intercessory prayers the priest concludes by saying

Loving God,
you have taught us that the power of the heart is greater than the power of wealth and might.
Hear us as we pray for the fulfilment of your reign.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our King;
to him be glory and power for ever.

Amen.

¶ The Liturgy of the Sacrament

¶ Please stand for The Peace

To crown all things there must be love, to bind all together and complete the whole.
Let the peace of Christ rule in our hearts.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

All may turn and greet their neighbour.

¶ Remain standing to sing The Offertory Hymn

during which a collection is taken for the mission and upkeep of the Church. The gifts of the people are gathered and presented. The table is prepared and bread and wine are placed upon it.

*This will be sung first by the choir, but anyone who knows it is welcome to join in. It will then be repeated for all to sing.

Majesty, worship his majesty;
Unto Jesus be glory, honour and praise.
Majesty, kingdom authority
Flow from his throne Unto his own:
His anthem raise.

So exalt, lift up on high the name of Jesus;
Magnify, come glorify Christ Jesus the King.
Majesty, worship his majesty,
Jesus who died,
Now glorified,
King of all kings.

Words and music: Jack W. Hayford (b.1934)

¶ Remain standing for The Prayer Over the Gifts

Father, in Christ there has sprung up a light for the righteous; accept the gifts we bring before you and grant that Christ may shine in us to the praise and glory of your name.
Amen.

¶ Remain standing throughout The Eucharistic Prayer (B)

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give you thanks, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For with the oil of gladness you have anointed Christ the Lord, your only Son, to be our great high priest and king of all creation.

As priest, he offered himself once for all upon the altar of the cross and redeemed the human race by this perfect sacrifice of peace.

As king he claims dominion over all your creatures, that he may bring before your infinite majesty a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace.

And so with angels and archangels and all the heavenly host,
we proclaim your glory and join their unending hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Lord, you are holy indeed,
the source of all holiness;
grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit, and according to your holy will,
these gifts of bread and wine may be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;

who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
