STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

'Bill and Jenny had been happily married for six months. That had been twenty years ago.' An old joke, and, sadly, one that's true of all too many marriages. According to the Book of Common Prayer, following Mark, Jesus seems to have viewed marriage in the same light as the new creation – blessed by God, but not yet perfected in the human sense, the only sense in which we can know it. Certainly, that was the approach taken by the writer of the letter to the Hebrews.

So our stewardship has a much wider context than we sometimes imagine. Yes, of course it includes our time, talents and treasure – but when did you last reflect of the stewardship of relationships; of the importance for the Christian of taking seriously, not only marriage (for those who are married), but friendships, workplace relationships, how our church relates to the community it serves? I think it was Virginia Wolff who said, 'I have lost many friends – some by death, others by a simple inability to cross the street.' 'Receiving the kingdom of God like a little child' is a clue. Children see through our adult pretence to what is real – the emperor's new clothes do not impress them. And when a child throws their arms round a grandparent neck, gives them a kiss and says, 'I love you', you can be sure that you have a glimpse of that kingdom.

The ALL SAINTS FAYRE

will take place on 7 November at the Corn Exchange and we must make the most of this opportunity of getting some well desired cash into our coffers, while having a good time in the process. We will be running all the usual stalls, games and initiatives, so please be forthcoming as volunteers. As in the last couple of years, there are crates in church for you to place donations for the respective stalls. We will also be running the St Ives Bake-Off once again, but with the addition of a junior category this year, so please pass this information to family and friends. ALSO PLEASE DO NOT FORGET TO TAKE DRAW TICKETS TO SELL OR PASS ON TO OTHERS,

¶ The Gathering

*¶ Please stand when the bell is rung to sing The Processional Hymn

All creatures of our God and King,
Lift up your voice and with us sing
Alleluia, alleluia!
Thou burning sun with golden beam,
Thou silver moon with softer gleam:
O praise him, O praise him,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Thou rushing wind that art so strong,
Ye clouds that sail in heaven along,
O praise him, alleluia!
Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice,
Ye lights of evening, find a voice:
O praise him, O praise him,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Thou flowing water, pure and clear,
Make music for thy Lord to hear,
Alleluia, alleluia!
Thou fire so masterful and bright,
That givest man both warmth and light:
O praise him, O praise him,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Dear mother earth, who day by day
Unfoldest blessings on our way,
O praise him, alleluia!
The flowers and fruits that in thee grow,
Let them his glory also show:
O praise him, O praise him,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Let all things their Creator bless,
And worship him in humbleness,
O praise him, alleluia!
Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son,
And praise the Spirit, three in One:
O praise him, O praise him,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Words: S. Francis of Assisi (1182 – 1226), translated by William Draper (1855 – 1933)
Tune Lasst uns erfreuen: Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872 – 1958), based on a melody in Geistliche Kirchengesang (Cologne, 1623)

† In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you
and also with you.

¶ Please sit or kneel for The Penitential Rite

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son Jesus Christ to save us from our sins,
to be our advocate in heaven,
and to bring us to eternal life.

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God's commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us,

For each perfect gift of thine,
To our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine,
Flowers of earth and buds of heaven:

For thy Church that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
This pure sacrifice of love:

Words: Folliott Sandford Pierpoint (1835 – 1917)
Tune England's Lane: Geoffrey Shaw (1879 – 1943), based on an English folk song

¶ Remain standing for the Dismissal Gospel

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said,
'Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.'
Praise to you, O Christ.

¶ Remain standing for the Final Hymn

For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the Love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon and stars of light:

For the joy of ear and eye,
For the heart and brain's delight,
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight:

For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above,
For all gentle thoughts and mild:

forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

we praise you for your glory.

Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you;
and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ The Liturgy of the Word

¶ Remain seated to sing The Responsorial Psalm (Ps. 8)

Response: Dom Gregory Murray; Chant: Joseph Gelineau

How great is your name, O Lord our God, through all the earth!

Your majesty is praised above the heavens,
on the lips of children and of babes,
you have found praise to foil your enemy,
to silence the foe and the rebel. (Response)

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him? (Response)

Distribution of the Sacrament

Please come forward when directed by a steward. Anyone who has been baptised in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and wishes to receive the Love of the Lord Jesus in their life, is welcome to come forward to receive communion at this service. Alternatively you may wish to come for a blessing: if this is your preference please keep your hands down and your head bowed to indicate this.

¶ Please join in singing the Communion Hymn

O perfect Love, all human thought transcending, Lowly we kneel in prayer before thy throne,
That theirs may be the love that knows no ending
Whom thou for evermore dost join in one.

O perfect Life, be thou their full assurance
Of tender charity and steadfast faith,
Of patient hope, and quiet brave endurance,
With childlike trust that fears not pain nor death.

Grant them the joy that brightens earthly sorrow,
Grant them the peace which calms all earthly strife;
And to life's day the glorious unknown morrow
That dawns upon eternal life and love.

Words: Dorothy Frances Gurney (1858 – 1932)

Tune Highwood: Sir Richard Terry (1865 – 1938)

¶ Please stand for The Prayer after Communion

The Priest introduces a period of silent prayer with the words
Let us pray.

Almighty God,
you have taught us through your Son that love is the fulfilling of the law: grant that we may love you with our whole heart and our neighbours as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

¶ Remain standing for The Lord's Prayer

Please feel free to use either the words printed below or a more familiar from if this is something you are more comfortable with. The important thing is not what you say but that you understand and mean what you say.

Jesus taught us to call God our Father,
and so we have the courage to pray:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Remain seated for The Invitation to Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

¶ Sit or kneel for the Lamb of God

While the Altar Party receives the Sacrament, the choir leads the singing of the 'Agnus Dei' (Lamb of God). Please join in singing:

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: grant us peace.

Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet. (Response)

All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. (Response)

¶ Remain seated for the New Testament Reading
(Hebrews 1: 1—4; 2: 5—12)

At the end the reader says:
This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Cantor: Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth.

All: Alleluia (as above)

¶ Remain standing for The Gospel Reading (Mark 2: 10—16)

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to you, O Lord.

At the conclusion of the Gospel the reader says:
This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

¶ Please sit for The Sermon

Fr Aidan Mayoss, CR

¶ Please stand for The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

It is customary to bow the head for the next three lines:

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

and according to your holy will,
these gifts of bread and wine
may be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;

who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Great is the mystery of faith:

And so, Father, calling to mind his death on the cross, his perfect sacrifice made once for the sins of the whole world;
rejoicing in his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension,
and looking for his coming in glory,
we celebrate this memorial of our redemption.

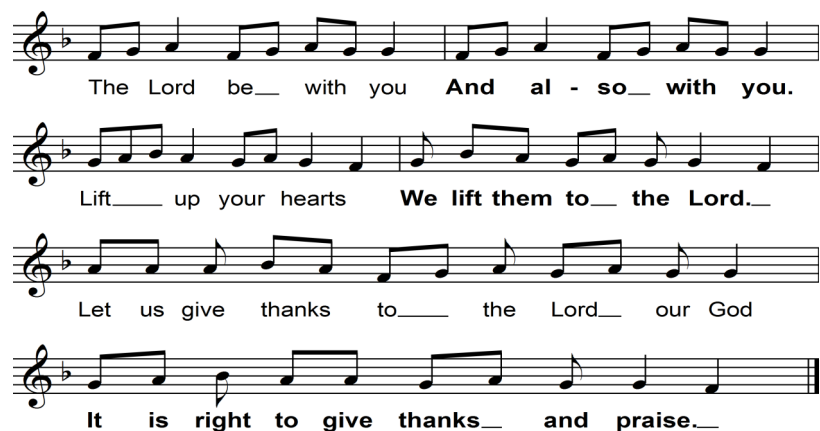

As we offer you this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, we bring before you this bread and this cup and we thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

Send the Holy Spirit on your people and gather into one in your kingdom all who share this one bread and one cup, so that we, in the company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Apostles, Martyrs and all the saints, may praise and glorify you for ever,
through Jesus Christ our Lord;

by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

¶ Remain standing for the Eucharistic Prayer (B)

The Lord be_ with you And al - so_ with you.

Lift_ up your hearts We lift them to_ the Lord._

Let us give thanks to_ the Lord_ our God

It is right to give thanks_ and praise._

Father, we give you thanks and praise through your beloved Son Jesus Christ, your living Word, through whom you have created all things;
who was sent by you in your great goodness to be our Saviour.

By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh;
as your Son, born of the blessed Virgin,
he lived on earth and went about among us;
he opened wide his arms for us on the cross;
he put an end to death by dying for us;
and revealed the resurrection by rising to new life;
so he fulfilled your will and won for you a holy people.
Therefore with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Lord, you are holy indeed, the source of all holiness;
grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit,

¶ Please kneel or sit for the Prayers of Intercession

As children of a loving God who always listens to our cries, let us pray to our Father in heaven.

To the bidding Lord, in your mercy
Please respond by saying Hear our prayer.

After the prayers for the departed the intercessor continues
We pray for all who have died in the peace of Christ.
Rest eternal grant unto them O Lord
And let light perpetual shine upon them.
May they rest in peace
and rise in glory
Amen.

The priest introduces a period for silent reflection, after which he says:
Merciful Father,
accept these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

¶ The Liturgy of the Sacrament

¶ Please stand for The Peace

We are the body of Christ .
In the one Spirit we were all baptised into one body.
Let us then pursue all that makes for peace and builds up our common life.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

All may exchange a sign of peace.

¶ Remain standing for The Offertory Hymn

during which a collection is taken for the mission and upkeep of the Church. The gifts of the people are gathered and presented. The table is prepared and bread and wine are placed upon it.

Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own:
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee,
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

Crown him the Virgin's Son,
The God incarnate born,
Whose arm those crimson trophies won
Which now his brow adorn:
Fruit of the mystic Rose,
As of that Rose the Stem;
The Root whence mercy ever flows,
The Babe of Bethlehem.

Crown him the Lord of love!
Behold his hands and side,
Rich wounds yet visible above
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so bright.

Crown him the Lord of peace,
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
Absorbed in prayer and praise:
His reign shall know no end,
And round his piercèd feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime:
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
For thou hast died for me;
Thy praise shall never, never fail
Throughout eternity.

Words: Matthew Bridges (1800 – 1894)
Tune Diademata: Sir George Elvey (1816 – 1893)

¶ Remain standing for The Prayer Over the Gifts

Pray, my brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Accept, O Lord, we pray,
the sacrifices instituted by your commands and, through the sacred mysteries, which we celebrate with dutiful service, graciously complete the sanctifying work
by which you are pleased to redeem us.
Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
